

PETS POLICY

Dogs are welcome at Duke's Lodge, but please remember that the property is located on a farm.

We do ask that you comply with the following as part of the terms and conditions of your stay, should you bring your doggy friends along – thank you.

PETS ARE ONLY ACCEPTED WITH PRIOR APPROVAL

- Unless in the house or in the enclosed areas, all dogs must be kept on a lead at all times,.
- Please prevent your dog from disturbing the wildlife around the farm and be aware that there are lots of ground nesting birds, hares, rabbits, deer etc.
- Pet owners are responsible for clearing up any / all pet refuse.
- Pets should not be left alone in the property at any time, unless properly crated and when leaving them has been agreed with the property owners. (A large dog crate can be supplied, on request.)
- A warm tap and hose outside the utility room are provided for washing down muddy paws and dog coats. Doggy towels are also provided.
- The living rooms have throws available to protect the sofas - please use these if you are allowing your pet onto the furniture.
- Pets are not allowed on the beds at any time. Evidence of pets on beds will incur additional cleaning fees.
- Retractable stairgates are provided as and when necessary on both sets of stairs.
- Any damage caused to the premises by the pet will be charged.
- The owners assume no responsibility for illness or injury that may incur to pets or humans whilst on the premises.
- All pets should be up to date on vaccinations recommended by the vet and should be treated to control ticks and fleas.
- Sorry, but we are unable to accept bitches in season.

Thank you for your co-operation.
